

Davinder Jassal - Background

Overview

Davinder is an associate attorney in the firm's Litigation department. Davinder has experience representing clients in a variety of litigation matters, including commercial disputes, personal injury defense, and transportation.

Davinder grew up in Fort Worth, Texas, and obtained his law degree from Texas Tech University School of Law. During law school, Davinder served as an Articles Editor on the Texas Tech Law Review and as the Vice Chair of Appellate Advocacy on the Board of Barristers. Davinder began his legal career as a judicial clerk at the Eleventh Court of Appeals in Eastland, Texas, where he clerked for the Honorable Justice Keith Stretcher.

During his free time, Davinder enjoys playing basketball, watching movies, and supporting his favorite team: the Dallas Mavericks.

Davinder Jassal
Associate

(214) 658-1917
djassal@hoaf.com

Education/Admissions

- Texas Tech University School of Law, J.D. 2018
- The University of Texas at Arlington, B.A. in Criminology & Criminal Justice 2015

Transportation & Logistics
Insurance Defense & Coverage Litigation
Commercial & Business Litigation

Experience

- Texas 2018
- United States District Court, Northern District of Texas

News/Publications

Claims For Loss, Damage, and Delay to Interstate Shipments

Claims For Loss, Damage, and Delay to Interstate Shipments What Congress appears to give with one hand, it preempts with the other.

What is the Carmack Amendment?

The Carmack Amendment is a federal statute that governs the liability of motor carriers for property lost or damaged in interstate transit.

Carmack Amendment Preemption Applies to Post-Delivery Claims Process

HOAF is proud to announce a recent victory reinforcing the preemptive scope of the Carmack Amendment.